A former third-year intern with Fullerton Beck LLP, Jessica joined the firm as a law clerk after graduating cum laude with her J.D. from Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University.

While in law school, Jessica held internships with several organizations to start building her portfolio of experiences and homing in on the areas of law in which she would like to practice. Among them was an internship with the RealFi Investor Rights Clinic, where she represented small investors in securities arbitration and mediations before the Financial Industry Regulation Authority (FINRA) dispute resolution forum. She received the Excellence in Clinical Education Award for her work with the clinic.

Jessica received a Bachelor of Arts in English from Manhattanville College.
