Joseph Sauer focuses his practice at Fullerton Beck on defending general liability and premises liability cases, including elevator accident cases and complex construction accident claims, under New York Labor Law. He represents a wide range of clients, including property owners, contractors, and insurance carriers, and has a proven track record of achieving favorable results in state and federal courts. An experienced trial attorney, Joe handles all aspects of a case from inception through trial. Joe also represents defendants in cases that fall under the Child Victims Act. He has become a trusted advisor for these sensitive matters involving alleged sexual abuse. Before joining Fullerton Beck, Joe served as an Assistant Corporation Counsel for the City of New York in the Bronx Tort Division for over five years, including two years as a full-time trial attorney. He represented various city agencies—such as the NYPD, Department of Corrections, FDNY, and Department of Education—in cases involving civil rights, intentional torts, negligent supervision, motor vehicle accidents, and premises liability. Education Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University, JD, magna cum laude Johns Hopkins University, BA Admissions New York US District Court, Southern District of New York US District Court, Northern District of New York Awards & Recognition Best Lawyers Ones to Watch New York Metro Super Lawyers Rising Stars Division Chief Award, City of New York, 2014, 2017
